

2019 - R8 CHARDONNAY – CALIFORNIA

Aviators and winemakers alike are driven by a keen taste for discovery. Whether blazing the skies or walking the vineyards, they know the journey is its own reward.

In 1993, Michael Lancaster ventured from his native Toronto to California, driven by a passion for winemaking. His uncommon tenacity has yielded wines of true depth and elegance. Named for an airport runway that launches scenic flights over our Sonoma Valley winery, R8 is a guidepost for any adventurer seeking new horizons.

The 2019 R8 Chardonnay has a medium golden color with a slight green tint around the edges. The wine is full on the palate with apple and pear notes, a hint of toasted vanilla and finishing with a touch of creamy butterscotch.
